DOGS ARE PROPERTY

Cases have gone before the highest State courts and decisions have been rendered in these cases declaring dogs to be property and the person or persons injuring or destroying this property is accountable to the law just the same as if it was other property upon which taxes had been paid. We do not believe that there are many who would wilfully violate this or other laws, but that there are some who do in evidence by the fact that someone has scattered poison in the city and dogs have gotten it and died. A reward is offered for the violator of the law referred to above and should the person thus disregarding the law be brought before the court and convicted they will certainly be made to pay the penalty.

The Yosemite valley gets its name from an Indian word signifying "large grizzly bear."

SALVATION ARMY ADVISORY BOARDS FOR STATE

The Salvation Army has organized Advisory Boards in 41 towns in Western Ohio and Kentucky, preparatory to launching its Home Service Campaign, by which it will extend its services, for the first time in its history, from the city to the country. According to Brigadier Herbert Roberts, of Cincinnati, commanding this division, considerable more than 100 other Advisory Boards will be formed in his territory.

Fourteen of the Boards already organized are in Ohio, the remainder in Kentucky. Following are the Kentucky points and the Board Presidents: Augusta, Dr. C. R. Rice; Eminence, J. P. Middleton; Carrollton, Sam Combs; LaGrange, G. S. Morris; Lawrenceburg, Dr. J. B. Lyon; Harrodsburg, T. W. Latta; Lancaster, R. H. Batsow; Richmond, W. K. Price; Bardonia, H. R. Cox; Springfield, A. W. Dorsey; Lebanon, Dr. G. G. Thornton; Columbia, Judge Hancock; Dawson Springs, Lee O. Dixon; Madisonville, H. K. Anderson; Central City, R. L. Bennett; Paducah, Carl Wells; Cadiz, J. A. Glenn; Elkton, Dr. E. W. Weathers; Russellville, W. J. Byrne, Sr.; Scottsville, A. F. Pearson; Henderson, M. W. Riker; Marion, M. H. Cannon; Princeton, Rals Dor; Eddyville, N. W. Utley; Covington, R. G. Bryson; Newport, Blaine McLaughlin; Frankfort, M. Strassner.

Advisory Board members will act as representatives of the Salvation Army in raising funds and reporting to it cases they are unable to handle locally. Campaigns already have started in a number of places.

SAY "DIAMOND DYES"—TAKE NO OTHER DYE

Unless you ask for "Diamond Dyes" you may get a poor dye that streaks, spots, fades and gives that dyed look. Every package of Diamond Dyes contains simple directions for home dyeing or tinting any new, rich, fadeless color into garments or draperies of any material. No mistakes! No failures! (adv)

It has been estimated that steamers are 20 per cent. safer than sailing vessels.

MILLERSBURG

—Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Allen were in Cincinnati a few days last week.

—Mr. Claude Hillock united with the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

—Mother's Day was observed here in all the churches in the Sunday morning service.

—Mr. G. W. Clifford and family have returned from a visit to relatives at Dayton, Ohio.

—Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Vaught, of Indianapolis, Ind., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Judy.

—Quite a number from here attended the meeting of Daughters Lodge, F. & A. M., at Carlisle, Friday night.

—Master George B. Potts, of Winchester, was the guest of his uncle, Mr. O. L. Potts, and family, from Saturday until Monday.

—Mrs. Homer Wright, of Nashville, Ga., and Mrs. F. A. Davis and son, of Louisville, are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Jones.

—The restaurant of Mr. E. R. Hurst, which was advertised for sale on last Saturday, was postponed indefinitely, and may be sold privately.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomason and little son left Monday for their home in Chicago, Ill., after a two-weeks' visit to his parents, Squire and Mrs. E. P. Thomason.

—The following were selected from here as members of the Bourbon County Democratic Committee: Precinct No. 1, Mr. W. D. McIntyre and Mrs. Allie Miller, No. 2, Squire A. C. Ball and Mrs. V. L. Barton.

—At the last meeting of the City Council the Millersburg Coal and Lumber Co. were granted permission to take down the old building at the rear of their office, replacing it with a new and more convenient structure.

—The attendance at the Sunday school of the Christian church Sunday morning was 149, five more than on the same day last year. This is the largest attendance in twenty eight years, when on Sunday school day at that time their books show an enrollment of 199.

—Don't forget that this is "Clean-up-Week." Let everybody get busy and clean their premises. Wagons and trucks will be furnished by the Millersburg Coal and Lumber Co., and D. E. Clarke & Co., to haul your debris away Friday morning. Have the same in a convenient place, where they can go to it.

—The new converts, numbering about twenty-five, united with the Christian church during the two protracted meetings at the Methodist church, received the right hand of fellowship at the Sunday morning service. Mr. and Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Banta united with the Christian church by letter Sunday morning. Several of the new converts received the ordinance of baptism last Thursday afternoon.

—The Old Kentucky Home concert, under the direction of Mrs. C. M. Best, will be given at the Graded School gymnasium, Thursday at 8:00 p. m. All the music written by Stephen Foster will be used. The participants will dress in old costumes. This gives an opportunity of airing the costumes of your ancestors. The first rehearsal was given Monday night and the entertainment promises to be interesting. Let everybody attend. The quota for Millersburg for the purchase of the Stephen Foster Home, near Bardonia, should be met.

—Fletcher A. Jones, aged 88 years, died Saturday at 5:00 p. m., at the home of his brother, H. D. Jones. Mr. Jones was born July 16, 1832, at Mt. Sterling, and with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jones, moved to Millersburg when he was about eight years of age. With the exception of nine years, from 1881 to 1890, his entire life since early boyhood, has been spent in Millersburg. During these nine years he resided in Pine Bluff, Ark.

At the age of twenty-six he was united in marriage to Miss Hayes, of Greencastle, Ind. Their married life was short, she dying one year later. Some years later he was again united in marriage to Miss Lucy Fleet, of Richmond, Va., who died several years ago. Their union was blessed with four children, one daughter, who died when a child, three sons, Messrs. Fleet Jones, of Pine Bluff, Ark., D. P. and G. F. Jones, of Millersburg, the latter dying in 1913. He is also survived by six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. He was one of a family of twelve children, all of whom have preceded him to the grave but two, one brother, H. D. Jones, with whom he resided, and one sister, Mrs. Clara Dabney.

He began life as a harness maker, and was operating a harness shop at the time of his death, having enjoyed more than seventy years in business and held the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. From 1891 to 1896 he was postmaster here under the Cleveland administration. Early in life he united with the Methodist church, and was a devout and consistent member from that time until his death. He was one man whom to know was to love, retiring in manner, with a brilliant mind, and was thoroughly conversant on many subjects. He knew more of the history of Millersburg than any other citizen, and many of us regret that we did not take notes from him of many things here which will now be lost to future generations.

A short funeral service was held Sunday at 4:00 p. m., at the home of his son, D. P. Jones, conducted by Mr. C. C. Fisher, of the M. C., assisted by his pastor, Rev. P. F. Adams, of the Methodist church, after which his remains were laid to rest on the family lot in Millersburg cemetery.

Peebles Talks

by The Joseph R. Peebles Sons Company

Over eighty years ago when Cincinnati was just beginning to find its own place among the other thriving cities of the country, Joseph R. Peebles opened his grocery store.

He determined at the outset of his business career to purvey foodstuffs of the highest quality, wholesomeness and purity at reasonable prices.

Today, The Joseph R. Peebles' Sons Company is guided by this policy of its founder—and ever shall be throughout their business future.

This is the reason, perhaps, why the most discerning housewives in Cincinnati, and the Central West say—

"Peebles is another way of saying fine groceries at reasonable prices."

In our four stores, everything that affords convenience, comfort and service to our customers is most carefully maintained. If you want the best for your table at reasonable prices, Peebles' asks your patronage.

In our Mail Order Department each order receives personal attention.

May we send you our catalog?

DELEGATES CHEER KENTUCKIANS AT CHICAGO MEET

The convention of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic at Chicago, rose en masse and cheered the Kentucky delegation as the latter sang, "My Old Kentucky Home." The temporary chairman, Major Kinkaid, bowed his appreciation to the Kentucky delegation and in a speech paid eloquent tribute to the State and to Henry Clay's great fight for the recognition of South American republics.

The Kentucky delegation was in great favor with the convention of 5,000 cheering Americans attending what was considered the most remarkable unique convention ever held in Chicago.

There was a great demonstration as Judge Goff, of New York, 85 years old, introduced Captain John A. Geary, of Lexington, as "one of the old Guard," and Captain Geary's response was one of the happiest addresses of the Monday evening session.

The convention adjourned at the conclusion of an appeal by Miss MacSwiney, which furnished the climax for the historic session.
